

Colon Cancer? Not Me!

Hartford Hospital invites you to learn about ways to protect yourself and the ones you love against colon cancer.

Saturday, June 20, 2009
10AM to 11AM

Enfield Public Library
104 Middle Road, Enfield CT

Kristina H. Johnson, MD, FACS, FASCRS

Colon & Rectal Surgery
Connecticut Surgical Group

Join Kristina H. Johnson, MD, a Board Certified Colon and Rectal Surgeon with Connecticut Surgical Group, to hear the most up-to-date information on how you can protect against colon cancer. Dr. Johnson's areas of interest include colonoscopy, colorectal cancer and female incontinence and reconstruction. Dr. Johnson is an attending physician at Hartford Hospital and Assistant Clinical Professor at the University of Connecticut School of Medicine.

This free seminar will provide you with valuable information on:

- Risk factors and causes of colon cancer
- The latest screening techniques
- The newest surgical advances including laparoscopic and robotic techniques

There will be a demonstration of an actual taped colonoscopy.

Registration is required. Call Hartford Hospital's Health Referral Service at (860) 545-1888.
